Dear Mr. Ramsey:

Please be advised we are continuing our efforts with all of the information you have requested regarding the medical situations of the Melton siblings. We endeavor to supply this material and information to you with due dispatch. Unfortunately, the number of individuals involved is costing unexpected delays.

Nevertheless, we remain steadfast in providing you with the requested information and documentation. We do not think there is a need for a Motion to Compel and request you provide us with the time necessary to conclude our efforts in this matter.

If you have any questions, please contact me.

Very truly yours,

Michael B. Ganson
